

Someone takes home pens and paper from their office for personal use.	Someone uses a phone at work to make personal calls.	Someone drives at 63mph in an area where the speed limit is 60mph.	Someone drives at 63 mph in an area where the speed limit is 40mph.
Someone possesses 3g of cannabis resin for their own personal consumption.	Someone possesses 3kg of cannabis resin for the purpose of selling it to others.	A boy and a girl, both aged 15, have consensual sex.	A boy and a girl have consensual sex. He is 15. She is 12. She has told him she is 15.
Two people have consensual sex. Both are married to other people.	A man wears a T-shirt in public which has words on it that Christians find offensive.	Someone punches someone else, giving them a black eye.	Someone who is having an epileptic seizure punches someone else, giving them a black eye.
Someone who has consumed a large amount of alcohol punches someone else, giving them a black eye.	A factory owner's factory pollutes a river, although the factory has not been run negligently.	A bank manager gives the access codes to the bank vault to someone else who pays them for the codes.	A bank manager gives the access codes to the bank vault to someone who claims to be holding his child hostage.
Someone who is talking on their mobile phone whilst driving knocks down and kills a child.	An eight year old child drives off in its parents' car and knocks down and kills a child.	An eight year old child takes some sweets from a shop without paying.	Someone breaks into someone else's house and removes some valuable jewellery.
Someone finds some valuable jewellery lying in the gutter, picks it up and later sells it for cash.	A person kills their parent in order to inherit their money.	A person kills their parent in the mistaken belief they were a burglar attempting to break into their house.	A person kills their parent whilst under the delusion that their parent was an agent of a secret organisation who was spying on them.