

Ainsworth et al (1978)

What is meant by secure and insecure attachment? Summarise the study by Ainsworth et al (1978)

What was the aim of the study?

Refer to controlled observation, strange situation, secure base

What was the procedure of the observation?

Refer to novel environment, observer records, scoring of intensity

What were the findings of the study?

Refer to similarities and differences in infant behaviour

What were the conclusions of the study?

What are the important behaviours? What was the overall conclusion?

What criticisms have been made of the study?

Why is it useful? What ethical issue is there? Is the study valid?