

Max becomes very clingy to his mum and follows her around everywhere. When his mum and dad are sitting together on the sofa, Max always tries to get in between them.

Max plays a game with his Action Man and a much smaller play figure. The play figure 'beats up' the action man. Max shouts 'Pow!' and 'That'll show you!' as he plays.

Max develops an acute fear of sharp objects. He bursts into tears whenever he sees a knife or pair of scissors.

Max wants some sweets but his dad says 'no'. Max has an enormous tantrum during which he lashes out at his dad with his hands and feet, screaming.

Max watches his dad shaving. Later, his mum finds him in the bathroom with his face covered in soap, 'shaving' with a piece of plastic he has found.

Max no longer has tantrums. When asked why he says it's very bad to scream and hit people. he doesn't cling to his mum so much either. he says only babies do that.